JUDICIAL STATISTICS OF IRELAND FOR THE YEAR 1900.

PART I.—CRIMINAL STATISTICS.

I.—INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

This Report, and the detailed Tables appended thereto, deal with the number and nature of Criminal offences committed in Ireland during the year 1900, and the measures adopted for the prevention and the punishment of crime in the country. The general arrangement of the various Tables is similar to that followed in the Criminal Statistics for the preceding five years.*

I.—Introductory Remarks.

Tables containing statistics for the last twenty years, with quinquennial averages, are included, so as to afford facilities for a consideration of the fluctuations in the amount of crime during a series of years.

Offences have been classified, under the general heads of "indictable" and "non-indictable."

Classification of offences.

Indictable offences are divided into the following six classes:—

- Class I.—Offences against the person.
- Class II.—Offences against property with violence.
- Class III.—Offences against property without violence.
- Class IV.—Malicious injuries to property.
- Class V.—Forgery and offences against the currency.
- Class VI.—Other offences not included in the above classes.

The crimes comprised in each class will be found set forth at each margin of the tables.

Non-indictable offences are grouped, as far as possible, either according to their nature or according to the Statutes of which they are infractions. The statistics relating to them are given in the tables showing the criminal business in the Courts of Summary Jurisdiction, in which tables the cases disposed of summarily are classified under two heads, viz.:—

Section A.—Indictable offences disposed of summarily.

Section B.—Other offences disposed of summarily.

Many of the minor cases, that is, many of those in Section B, although classed as "offences," are more of a civil than a criminal character.

Besides such cases, the proceedings in the Courts of Summary Jurisdiction comprise a large group of quasi-criminal cases which are not included in the Tables relating to criminal offences, but are set forth separately in Table 18. The principal subjects respecting which applications for orders were made in the quasi-criminal cases here referred to were as follow:—

Quasi-criminal cases.

- Secretaries.
- Maintenance.
- Goods stolen (Restoration of).
- Employers and Workmen.
- Children (Attendance Orders under Education Act, Committals to Industrial Schools, &c.).
- Sanitary Law.
- Dogs, Licences for.

* Three Schedules, showing in detail alterations in classification introduced in the year 1895, will be found on pages 33-35 of the Criminal Statistics for that year.

Comparative tables, as already stated, showing in a summary form the state of crime in Ireland, and the proceedings in Criminal Courts during each of the twenty years 1881-1900, with quinquennial averages under each head, have been compiled. They are given on pages 48-57.

Tables A, B, C, D, and E contain these comparisons. Tables A, B, C, and E refer, respectively, to the number of persons for trial at Assizes and Quarter Sessions; cases dealt with in Courts of summary jurisdiction; all offences of an indictable character reported to the police; and agrarian outrages. Table D gives a summary of Tables A, B, and C under condensed headings for the quinquennial averages and for the year 1900 only. In Table F, parts I. and II., is set forth the geographical distribution of crime and of the principal forms thereof during the last quinquennial period as shown by the rates of crimes to population in each county in Ireland. Part I. gives this information regarding the counties grouped according to their several degrees of criminality under each of the selected heads, and Part II. shows the counties arranged in alphabetical order by provinces.

Illustrative Diagrams and Maps, similar to those which appeared in the Volume for 1895 have been appended to this Report.

These Diagrams, while they deal with many of the subjects set out in the comparative tables are so constructed as to separately demonstrate crime of an ordinary and of an agrarian character respectively.

Thus Diagram 1 deals with indictable offences as reported to the police under various heads exclusive of agrarian outrages. Diagram 2 deals with the percentage of decrease in each of the years 1882-90, as compared with 1881: of crimes committed; of crimes committed exclusive of agrarian offences; of persons tried; and of prison population as compared with the estimated population of the country. Diagram 3 deals in a similar manner with indictable offences of all kinds, exclusive of agrarian offences; with crimes of violence, and with drunkenness. In Diagram 4 a comparison is made between the variations in crime and two of the standards usually employed to measure the prosperity of communities, viz., marriage and pauperism—an increase of the former generally indicating increase of prosperity; an increase of the latter usually denoting the reverse. Diagram 5 shows the actual numerical variation in agrarian crimes under each group of classification employed in the police returns presented to Parliament, and set forth in Comparative Table E.

The Maps demonstrate the geographical distribution of crime, and are planned as regards agrarian crime on the same lines as Diagrams 1, 3, and 4—that is, agrarian crime is omitted. As, therefore, the figures from which the greater number of the Maps are constructed do not correspond exactly with those in the average columns of the last quinquennial period of the comparative tables, each Map has an explanatory table attached showing the number and distribution of the crimes denoted in the Map. Map I. shows the distribution of crimes against property included in Classes II., III., IV., and V., exclusive of agrarian crime. Map II. demonstrates the distribution of crimes of violence against the person, also exclusive of agrarian crime. Map III. gives the distribution of crimes against morals; the question of agrarian crime does not require any allowance to be made regarding the numbers for the construction of this Map, and therefore the figures in the explanatory table correspond with those in Table F, Part II., page 60. Map IV., which deals with the distribution of drunkenness, is constructed on the same principles as Map III., and here again the figures in the explanatory table correspond with those in Table F. Map V. deals exclusively with the distribution of agrarian crime of all kinds taken collectively; the figures from which this Map is constructed are extracted from the returns of agrarian crime presented to Parliament, and are given in the explanatory table attached to the Map.

I.—Introductory Remarks.

II.—GENERAL REVIEW.

The number of indictable offences in Ireland, which had fallen from 9,988 in the year 1898 to 9,144 in 1899, fell in 1900 still further to 8,972. This represents a decrease of 19 per cent, as compared with 1899, and of 10·2 per cent, as compared with 1898. The rate represented by such crimes was only about 2·0 per 1,000 of the estimated population. The number of persons proceeded against for non-indictable offences was less than in the year 1899 by 25,865, and less than the average for the ten years 1890-99 by 13,745. The chief decreases in the non-indictable offences as compared with 1899, were in cases of offences in relation to dogs, offences against Diseases of Animals Act, and assaults.

II.—General Review.

Though many offences which are non-indictable are of a decidedly criminal nature, or such as often lead up to serious crimes, still the number of "Indictable Offences" may be taken as the more correct standard by which to measure the prevalence of crime in relation to the population, inasmuch as the non-indictable offences include very many which partake largely of a civil nature. As stated above, cases distinctly of the latter character—those in which orders are made to maintain certain civil rights, or to secure the discharge of civil duties—are now shown separately under the title of Quasi-Criminal Offences (Table 18, p. 117). In each of the years 1899 and 1900 these offences amounted to about 16,000. Most of such cases prior to 1895 were found among "Cases disposed of Summarily," and were included in "Minor Offences" in the reports under the old system. Proceedings against weekly tenants in towns, which are especially numerous in Dublin, formed another group of the cases "Disposed of Summarily." These appeared both in the Civil and the Criminal statistics; they are now separated from the Criminal statistics proper. As they tended to increase the number of apparent crimes committed, they must be allowed for when instituting comparisons with the statistics for years anterior to 1895.

Standards by which to measure prevalence of crime.

The number of the serious and the minor offences in the year 1900 and their ratio to the population are set forth in the following statement, in comparison with the corresponding particulars for 1899. The figures for cases disposed of summarily show the number of persons proceeded against in such cases; those for cases not disposed of summarily have reference to the number of crimes committed.

The rate per 10,000 of the estimated population in the middle of each year represented by the number of cases in each class of "Indictable" Offences in Ireland during 1900 and each of the ten years preceding, with the average annual rates for those ten years is shown in the following summary. It exhibits the variations which have taken place during the eleven years in the proportional number of the more serious offences in Ireland, and shows that, measured by the number of indictable offences committed in proportion to the population, the crime rate in 1900, was below that for the preceding year, but somewhat above the average for the ten years 1890-99. The rate yielded by offences against the person was below the average, while that for offences against property was above the average, the chief portion of the increase being in cases of larceny.

The Prevention of Crimes Act, 1882, and the Criminal Law and Procedure Act, 1887, respectively, were in operation during the years 1882-5 and 1887-92, in several parts of Ireland, and under these Acts, in addition to cases which might have been disposed of summarily by Magistrates in Petty Sessions, many cases were dealt with which, in ordinary course, would have been returned for trial at Quarter Sessions or Assizes. The circumstances being exceptional, it was decided to exclude all the cases under these Acts in the years 1883-5 and 1887-92 from the ordinary Tables and Summaries in the Reports for those years, and to give them in special Tables only, and they are also omitted from the retrospective Summary Tables in this volume. The following statement shows the number of persons proceeded against under these Acts during each of the years here referred to:—

III.—NATURE OF CRIMES.

The various kinds of serious crime are, as already stated, grouped under the following heads:—

CLASS I.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON.

CLASS II.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITH VIOLENCE.

CLASS III.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITHOUT VIOLENCE.

CLASS IV.—MALICIOUS INJURIES TO PROPERTY.

CLASS V.—FORGERY AND OFFENCES AGAINST THE CURRENCY.

CLASS VI.—OTHER OFFENCES NOT INCLUDED IN THE ABOVE CLASSES.

The numbers given in the following remarks regarding the crimes of each of the six classes here mentioned are taken from the returns of cases reported to the police. The total number of such crimes (indictable offences) in 1900 was 8,972, or 2.0 per 1,000 of the population, being 172 under the number for the preceding year, and 1,015 under that for the year 1898.

CLASS I.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE PERSON.

The number of offences of this class fell from 867 for the year 1896 to 803 for the following year, rose to 877 for the year 1898, then fell again to 803 in 1899, and declined still further last year to 681.

The total number of cases of murder is 38 (18 of persons aged above one year, and 20 of infants aged one year and under), being 12 more than in the preceding year, and 2 over the average for the 5 years 1895-9. Of attempts to murder there were 3, as compared with 7 for the preceding year, 5 for the year 1898, and an average of 5·6 for the 5 years ending with 1899. The cases of manslaughter both in 1899 and 1900 were 54, the average for the five years 1895-9 being 66·2. Thus the cases of homicide and attempted homicide taken together were 13 over the number in the preceding year, but 12 below the average for the five years 1895-9.

CLASS II.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITH VIOLENCE.

The number of cases of this nature reported to the police during the year 1900 was 450, being 24 under the number for the preceding year, and 81 under that for the year 1898, and 23·8 below the average for the five years 1895-9. The principal items in this class are burglary and house and shop breaking, amounting to 382 of the total of 456; the other cases include 61 robberies and assaults with intent to rob, 10 cases of seditious, and 3 cases of extortion by threats.

CLASS III.—OFFENCES AGAINST PROPERTY WITHOUT VIOLENCE.

The offences of this class amounted to 73 per cent. of the total number of indictable offences reported to the Police in 1900: their number was 6,548, being 63 in excess of the number for the preceding year, but 669 under that for 1898. The class practically means cases of larceny.

CLASS IV.—MALICIOUS INJURIES TO PROPERTY.

There were 821 offences of this nature in 1900, being 2 less than the number for the preceding year, 81 over the average for the five years 1895-9, 61 over the average for the five years 1890-94, but 7 under the average for the five years 1885-9, and 290 under the average for the five years 1880-84. The 821 offences in 1900 comprised 173 cases of arson, 111 of killing and maiming cattle, and 84 of setting fire to crops, plantations, &c.

CLASS V.—FORGERY AND OFFENCES AGAINST THE CURRENCY.

The number for last year was above the average for recent years, being 40 or 5 in excess of the average for the five years 1895-9: the increase was in cases of forgery and uttering (felony), which numbered 26.

CLASS VI.—OTHER INDICTABLE OFFENCES.

The number, in 1900, of indictable offences not included in any of the foregoing classes was 426, or 71 under the average number under this heading for the five years 1895-9. Among the 426 cases are 242 of Intimidation by Threatening Letters, Notices, or otherwise (an increase of 19 as compared with the corresponding number for the preceding year), and 103 attempts to commit suicide.

indictable
offences.

OFFENCES DISPOSED OF SUMMARILY.

The offences comprised in this division are classified into two groups distinguished as (A) and (B) respectively in the tables.

Under head (A) will be found some of the indictable offences which have been discussed in the above remarks dealing with the police returns of crimes committed—those, namely, in which the charges arising out of them were disposed of in

III.— Nature of Crimes.

Courts of Summary Jurisdiction. The number of such in 1900 was 3,436, or 38·3 per cent. of the total number of indictable offences. The bulk of the 3,436 cases so disposed of were larcenies.

All non-indictable offences are included in Section (B). The number of persons charged with such offences, in 1900, amounted to 202,315, or 45·3 per 1,000 of the estimated population. The rate represented by offences of this class in 1898 was 50·7, and in 1899 50·7. Although the cases in this Section are exclusive of those referred to on page 11 as quasi-criminal, they nevertheless comprise a large number of cases, more of a civil than a criminal character, such as some of the offences against the Highway Acts, Police Regulations, Sanitary Laws, Hackney Carriage Regulations, &c.

A very large number of the cases which come under division (B) consist of charges of drunkenness (including drunkenness and disorderly conduct) and assaults. The number of the latter (assaults—comprising aggravated assaults, assaults on constables, and common assaults) in 1900 was 19,994, or 9·5 per cent. of all offences committed. In the case of drunkenness the number is much more remarkable, as it amounts to 97,457, being 46·1 per cent. of all offences committed, and 47·4 per cent. of all cases disposed of summarily. Assault cases were less numerous by 2,071 in 1900 than in 1899, and the charges of drunkenness show a decrease—from 98,401 to 97,457.

The following statement exhibits the assault cases disposed of summarily, and the cases of drunkenness (including drunkenness and disorderly conduct) in 1900, compared with each of the ten years preceding:—

	1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.	1894.	1895.	1896.	1897.	1898.	1899.	Average Annual Number 1890-99.	1900.
Assaults,	36,389	36,741	36,313	36,166	34,545	33,796	34,337	33,323	33,508	32,665	33,319	19,994
Drunkenness and Drunk and Disorderly.	106,502	106,028	95,197	89,960	88,315	85,341	90,343	94,528	94,279	96,421	92,433	97,457

It will be seen that the assault cases in 1900 were less than those in any of the preceding ten years, and were much below the average for the decennium 1890-99. The cases of drunkenness were more numerous than in any of the ten years except 1890, 1891, and 1899, and considerably in excess of the average for the decennium.

The other charges disposed of summarily include 2,706 cases of cruelty to animals 821 cases of cruelty to children, 701 offences against the game laws, and 2,277 cases of malicious damage. Compared with the statistics for the preceding year cases of cruelty to animals show a decrease of 460.

The offences against the game laws have also decreased, but there was an increase of 78 cases of cruelty to children, and 115 cases of malicious damage.

QUASI-CRIMINAL OFFENCES.

Table 18 gives details of the nature and number of cases coming under this head. The applications for orders in such cases amounted to 17,812 in the year 1900. Of these, 4,559 were cases for orders to find sureties to keep the peace or for good behaviour, and 3,879 related to children, comprising 3,066 for school attendance orders, 803 for Industrial school orders, and 10 for custody orders under the 1894 Act for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Among the remaining cases are 2,523 applications under Sanitary Law.

IV.—GEOGRAPHICAL DISTRIBUTION OF CRIME.

The following statement for the years 1899 and 1900, shows the general distribution of crime throughout the County and City Districts into which Ireland is divided for criminal jurisdiction and police purposes, with the increase or decrease in each district in the latter year:—

Geographical Distribution of Crime in 1899 and
1900.

Offences in each county.
Tables 18
and 24.

Taking the number of indictable offences committed as the more reliable measure of the prevalence of crime, we find that, comparing the figures for 1900 with those for 1899, there was an increase of such offences in 14 districts and a decrease in 24, and that in two districts the number showed no change. The districts of increase were the Dublin Metropolitan Police District, Londonderry City, the East Riding of Cork, Tipperary S.R., and the following Counties:—Galway, Carlow, King's, Longford, Meath, Westmeath, Wexford, Antrim, Donegal, and Roscommon.

The non-indictable offences show an increase in 2 districts, and a decrease in 23.

If all forms of offences are taken collectively, the numbers show an increase in 3 districts, and a decrease in 37.

Offences in each county

tion.

In the following lists the various districts are arranged from the lowest to the highest rate per 100,000 inhabitants (according to the Census of 1901) for each group, and for the total of all kinds of crime in the year 1900.

The large towns as usual occupy unfavourable positions in all these lists. This excess of the relative proportion of crime in large town districts as compared with the total of crime in Ireland generally, or in those districts where the populations are either altogether rural or where residents in towns form a comparatively small portion of the community, is further illustrated by the following statement, which shows the proportion of crime under certain headings in those towns having, in 1901, a population of twenty thousand and upwards; in all other districts; and in the whole of Ireland:—

Table showing for the Year 1900, the NUMBER of (1) OFFENCES of all kinds; (2) INDICTABLE OFFENCES; (3) NON-INDICTABLE OFFENCES; (4) CASES of DRUNKENNESS; in each of the TOWN DISTRICTS, which in 1901 had a population of 20,000 or upwards, and in all other parts of IRELAND; with the respective rates per 100,000 of the population, according to the Census of 1901 (unrevised numbers).

Of the criminal offences of all kinds in Ireland, amounting in 1900 to 211,287, 66,211, or 31.3 per cent., were committed in the towns referred to in the foregoing statement, although the aggregate population of these towns (910,000) constituted only 20.4 per cent. of the population of Ireland in the year 1901. The criminal offences represented a ratio of 7,275.9 per 100,000 of the population in the towns, against 4,390.1 in the remainder of Ireland. As already remarked, a very large portion of the offences committed consists of cases of drunkenness. The foregoing Table shows that the ratio of cases of drunkenness to the population was 2,449.1 per 100,000 in the large town districts, against 2,119.3 in the rest of Ireland.

The geographical distribution by counties (including the towns situated therein) of the principal crimes (indictable offences) or groups of crimes during the five years 1896–1900 will be found in Comparative Table F, Part II. In this Part the counties are arranged in alphabetical order by provinces. In Table F, Part I., the counties are arranged in order for each class of crime from that where there was least to that where there was the greatest prevalence of crime, and in some columns the counties are grouped under certain degrees of criminality. From the first column in this Part, which shows for the five years 1896–1900 the average annual number of indictable offences per 100,000 of the estimated population, it will be observed that the rates range from 72.58 per 100,000 in Donegal to 596.09 in Dublin. In 8 counties and ridings the rate was under 100; in 23 it ranged between 100 and 200; and in 3—Kildare (223.78), Antrim (447.50), and, as above stated, Dublin—it exceeded 200. The rates for “Crimes against Property,” “Crimes of Violence,” “Crimes against Morals” and “Suicides” are given in columns 2, 3, 4, and 5 respectively.

Distribution of drunkenness, Comparative Table F.
Distribution of certain crimes, Maps I., II., and III.

Column 5 shows for the quinquennial period 1896-1900 the average rates represented by cases of drunkenness, which range from 1,216 per 100,000 of the population in the County of Mayo to 3,497 (or nearly treble the Mayo rate) in the County of Waterford.

In considering the maps demonstrating the distribution of crimes of certain groups in Ireland it is to be noted, with reference to Map I., showing the distribution of offences against property (included in Classes II., III., IV. and V.) for the five years 1896-1900, exclusive of agrarian offences, that the average of the totals of the whole group of indictable offences, exclusive of agrarian offences, amounts to 9,017, and those dealt with by Map I. to 7,889, leaving only 1,129 other cases of indictable offences; thus the Map practically represents the average distribution of indictable offences (exclusive of agrarian crime) in Ireland during the period dealt with. The corresponding figures for 1900 were—total indictable offences, 8,690, Classes I. and VI., 919, leaving Classes II., III., IV. and V. represented by the number 7,771. The average numbers for the two groups of crime in Class I., namely, crimes of violence against the person and crimes against morals, for the years 1896-1900, were respectively 626.0 and 164.2; these two groups are dealt with in Maps II. and III., thus making up the distribution of the balance of classified indictable offences, exclusive of agrarian offences, not included in Map I.

Distribution of Drunkenness, Map IV., and Comparative Table F.

The distribution of drunkenness is demonstrated in Map IV. The great influence of the figures for drunkenness on the statistics of crime in Ireland and its relative proportion in town and country districts has already been dwelt upon. In this map and its explanatory Table further details are given of the distribution of drunkenness cases during the years 1896-1900. This map is constructed from comparative Table F, Part I., column 5, where the Irish counties, inclusive of the towns situated therein, are classified and arranged according to the prevalence of drunkenness. As stated above, the lowest rate was 1,216 per 100,000 of the population in the County of Mayo, and the highest was in Waterford, where the rate was 3,497, or almost treble the proportion for Mayo.

Distribution of agrarian crime, Map V.

The distribution of agrarian crime is shown by Map V. In the following list the counties of Ireland are arranged in order from that where there was least to that where there was the greatest prevalence of agrarian crime per 100,000 inhabitants during the period 1896-1900.

V.—Procedure for the Punishment of Crime.

V.—PROCEDURE FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF CRIME.

In Ireland, as is well known, the Police act as public prosecutors in the great majority of cases, and in most of the more serious offences the preliminary proceedings are instituted by them. The offices of Crown and Sessional Crown Solicitor are amalgamated, and the duties of the united offices are performed by a Crown Solicitor in the Counties of Carlow, Cavan, Cork City, Down, Dublin, Galway, Kildare, Limerick County and City, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Monaghan, Queen's, Roscommon, Waterford

Westmeath, Wexford, and Wicklow. Elsewhere where no amalgamation of offices has yet taken place, Crown business at Assizes or Quarter Sessions is discharged by Crown or Seasonal Crown Solicitors, respectively.

The special feature in the administration of the criminal law in Ireland, by which certain districts are proclaimed under special Acts of Parliament may here be referred to. The particulars of the proclaimed districts and the titles of the Acts of Parliament under which the proclamations were issued, will be found in Tables 10, 11 and 12, p. 96. The districts subject to Proclamations were the same on 31st December, 1900, as on the last day of the previous year.

The proceedings in criminal cases at Assizes and Quarter Sessions will be found in Tables 1 to 7.

The following statement exhibits in a summary manner, for 1900, and each of the ten years preceding, the total number of persons tried by jury at Assizes, at the Dublin Commission Court, and at Quarter Sessions, and how their cases were disposed of:—

In Table 8 will be found the particulars of the cost of criminal proceedings at Assizes and Quarter Sessions for the year ended the 31st March, 1900, the total amount for Assizes being £31,937, and for Quarter Sessions, £7,529, as compared with £30,954 and £7,943, respectively, for the year ended 31st March, 1899.

V.—Procedure for the Punishment of Crime.

A retrospect for the twenty years 1881-1900 of the number of persons tried summarily* and the nature of offences, with quinquennial averages will be found in Comparative Table B. The notes prefixed to Tables 15 and 16, explanatory of these Tables, apply also to Comparative Table B, and should be read in connection with it. In connection with the subject of Courts of Summary Jurisdiction, attention may be again called to the Table (18) of Quasi-Criminal cases dealt with already at page 14.

Appeals to Quarter Sessions. Table 19.

Table 19 exhibits the number of the appeals to Quarter Sessions from convictions by Magistrates and the nature of the convictions appealed against. These appeals numbered 474 in 1899, and 499 in 1900. Those in the latter year were disposed of as follows:—Affirmed, 209; reversed, 132; varied, 79; otherwise disposed of, 79.

Character of persons prosecuted. Table 23.

CHARACTER OF PERSONS PROSECUTED.

Particulars as to the previous character of persons prosecuted during the year are given in Table 25, and an explanation of the principle of classification adopted is prefixed to the Table. It would appear that of 2,488 persons proceeded against for indictable offences and not tried summarily, 811, or 32·6 per cent., were known to be of bad character, and 1,677, or 67·4 per cent., came under the head of "previous character good or unknown," and of the total number of 205,809 persons proceeded against summarily for indictable and non-indictable offences, 192,209 or 93·4 per cent., are entered under the heading "previous character good or unknown."

Suspected persons at large. Table 26.

SUSPECTED PERSONS AT LARGE.

The numbers of suspected persons at large on the first Tuesday in April, 1900, will be found in Table 26. The total number is 1,434, comprising 530 thieves, 112 receivers, and 66 persons otherwise habitually engaged in crime, with 726 other suspected persons. Besides these there were 85 persons under the supervision of the police.

Persons in confinement. Admissions to places of detention. Tables 59, 61, 63, 68, and 61.

PERSONS IN CONFINEMENT.

The following statement shows the disposal of persons committed in the year 1900 under the various methods of procedure for the punishment or the prevention of crime:—

ADMISSIONS TO PLACES OF DETENTION.	Males and Boys.	Females and Girls.	Total.
Total in all Ireland.	23,315	13,912	37,227

Into Lunatic Asylums (criminal and dangerous lunatics),	1,434	1,005	2,439
Into Industrial Schools,	519	203	722

It will be noted that there were 37,227 persons admitted to places of confinement during the year 1900, and that of these 23,315 were males, and 13,912 females.

* Exclusive of Persons proceeded against under Crimes Acts in the years 1883-5 and 1887-92.

Among these 37,227 were 2,499 lunatics admitted into asylums, and 1,022 children admitted to industrial schools; so that 3,521, or 9·5 per cent. of the total admissions to places of detention, were of persons who cannot be considered as criminals. In addition to these exceptions, there are some young people and lunatics included among the admissions to prisons and bridewells who were only temporarily detained prior to admission to schools or lunatic asylums.

The receptions of prisoners which had fallen from 38,913 in 1898 to 36,813 in 1899, fell still further in 1900 to 33,521; there was a decrease of 65 as compared with 1898, and of 76 as compared with 1899 in the admissions to Lunatic Asylums (of criminal and dangerous lunatics), while the number of children admitted to Industrial Schools increased from 955 to 1,022, and the admissions to Reformatories increased from 122 to 185.

PRISONS.

The number of convicted prisoners (other than those committed for naval and military offences) committed to the larger, minor, and convict prisons during the year 1900 (see Table 35) is shown by age periods in the following statement:—

1900.
Table 35.

There were 10 girls under 16 years of age—all of whom were aged 12 and under 16—among the 11,646 convicted females committed to prison; the number of boys under 16 years was 148, and of the 148 there were 26 under 12 years of age. The total number of convicted males committed to these prisons was 17,186, and of females 11,646. Of the males 16·8 per cent., and of the females, 15·2 per cent. were over 30 years of age. The number of prisoners received into each prison will be found in Table 30, and particulars as to the disposal of prisoners in Tables 31A and 31B. Particulars as to the nature of sentences are given in Table 32, and details regarding the length of these sentences in Table 33.

A very large proportion of those admitted to prison during the year 1900 had been previously convicted. Of 28,832 convicted prisoners admitted to the larger, minor, and convict prisons, no less than 20,601 had been previously convicted. Of these, 3,929 had been once previously convicted, 1,895 twice, 1,401 thrice, 1,079 four times, 1,040 five times, 3,158 six to ten times, 3,291 from eleven to twenty times, and 5,813 above twenty times. It will be observed that a very large proportion are included in the last two periods, the figures showing that the commitments of persons who had previously been convicted upwards of ten times amounted to 9,104, or 31·6 per cent. of the total number of convicted prisoners admitted to prison during the year.

In Table 35 will be found statistics as to the birthplaces of those committed to prison. The state of education of prisoners is shown in the following statement, where the degree of education of the prisoners convicted in 1900 is compared with the state of education of persons of 12 years and upwards of the general population as ascertained from the Irish Census returns for 1891.

VI.—Criminals and others in confinement and known Criminals at large. As there were only 26 prisoners in 1900 under the age of 12 years, this insignificant disturbance does not appreciably affect the accuracy of the comparison:—

From this statement it will be observed that, while 30.6 per cent. of convicted prisoners committed to prison in 1900 were absolutely illiterate, only 16.8 per cent. of the general population in 1891 were in a similar condition of ignorance, and there is no doubt that the percentage of illiterate among the general population was much less in 1900 than in 1891. It is, however, to be borne in mind that the Census figures here quoted are for the population of all ranks, and are not limited to the classes which furnish the great bulk of the prisoners. The Educational figures for the Census of 1901 are not yet available.

The previous occupations of prisoners is set forth in Table 38, but, as the classification of occupations differs in several respects from that employed by the Census Commissioners in their report, it is impossible to institute comparisons between the occupations of prisoners and those of the general population in a manner similar to that adopted above regarding education. It may, however, be noted that, of the 28,832 prisoners convicted, 961 belonged to the domestic servant class; 12,390—by far the largest number for any one group—to the labouring classes; 576 to the class of factory workers; 3,600 to the artisan class; 146 were foremen or overlookers of labour; 236 belonged to the class of shopmen, shopwomen, and clerks; 2,466 to the class of shopkeepers and dealers; 25 to professional employments; 436 to the class of sailors, marines, and soldiers; and 4,689 (or 40.3 per cent. of the 11,646 female prisoners) are classified as prostitutes. It is to be noted that some of the prisoners were committed to prison more than once during the year, and that the statistics have reference to the number of committals of convicted prisoners, not to the number of individuals committed.

REFORMATORY SCHOOLS.

Various details relating to the inmates of institutions for the prevention of crime, namely, Reformatory and Industrial Schools, are contained in Tables 41-7.

The following statement shows the juvenile criminals under Reformatory control in the year 1900, compared with 1899, and the details for 1900 will be found in Tables 41-4:—

Reformatory Schools—Number in confinement, &c. Tables 41-6.

It appears from this table that the number of children on the rolls of Reformatory Schools in Ireland at the end of 1900, was 624, or 37 over the number at the close of the preceding year, which was 16 under that for 31st December, 1898. There was an increase of 34 in the number under sentence in the schools and of 4 on licence. Three of those on the rolls at the close of 1900 had absconded with sentence unexpired, being one less than the number under this heading in 1899.

Of the 624 of both sexes on the rolls at the close of the year 1900, 559 were boys and only 65 girls. The number committed during the year was 185, being 53 over the commitments in the preceding year. The number of boys committed in 1900 was 171, or 69 more than in the year 1899, and the number of girls 14, or 6 under the number for 1899.

The condition as to parentage, &c., of the young persons committed in 1900 to Reformatories in Ireland is shown in the following table :—

None of the 14 girls and only two of the 171 boys come under the head of the illegitimate, the deserted, and those having both parents destitute or criminal. Those having both parents living, and who are not included in the foregoing, formed 59·6 per cent. of the boys and 71·4 per cent. of the girls. The orphans (including those having one parent dead) were 39·2 per cent. of boys and 28·6 per cent. of girls.

The status as to education (on admission) of children committed to Reformatory Schools is shown in the following summary :—

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

The Industrial Schools in 1900 numbered 71, being one less than the number in 1899. Of the 71 schools, 26 were in Munster, 20 in Leinster, 13 in Connaught, and 12 in Ulster.

Of the total number, 7,663 were in the schools undergoing their sentence of detention, 127 were retained in school with their own consent although their sentences had expired, 424 were on licence, and 7 (6 boys and 1 girl) had absconded.

The number of children admitted to Industrial Schools during the year was 1,022 showing an increase of 67 as compared with the admissions for the preceding year. The number of girls admitted increased from 478 in 1899 to 503 in 1900, and the number of boys from 477 in the former to 519 in the latter year.

Of the girls and boys admitted during last year 66.6 per cent. of the former and 54.7 per cent. of the latter were brought under training in these schools before they had reached the age of ten years.

CRIMINAL AND DANGEROUS LUNATICS.

Criminal
and Dangerous
Lunatics in confinement
Tables 48-
49.

The Criminal Law takes cognizance of two classes of insane persons, viz. —One—criminal lunatics—consisting of those persons who have actually committed criminal offences, and would, were they sane, be liable to punishment for their crimes; and the other, and by far the more numerous class—dangerous lunatics—consisting of persons who have not committed any criminal act, but who, having shown signs of mental derangement, have become a source of anxiety to their friends and neighbours who apprehend danger at their hands. The former class are, in the first instance, treated as criminal cases, and proceedings instituted with the view of bringing them to justice for the crimes with which they are charged. These persons are sent for trial and on being found insane are detained as lunatics; to these may be added persons who become insane while awaiting trial or during imprisonment. Dangerous lunatics are dealt with in a different way. They are charged before two Justices of the Peace (or a Metropolitan Police Magistrate) as being dangerous, and if the charge be proved to the satisfaction of the Justices an order is signed for their committal to a lunatic asylum; in such cases it is not necessary to prove an actual criminal offence. These persons cannot in any sense be considered as criminals, and as a matter of fact this method of procedure is frequently resorted to as the means of placing under restraint ordinary troublesome lunatics belonging to the industrial classes of the community.

The judgments or orders under which criminal and dangerous lunatics were committed to asylums in Ireland in 1900 are shown in the following summary:—

JUDGMENT OR ORDER BY WHICH.	Number.	Percentage per cent.
Total committed during year,	2,499	100.0
Committed to asylums by Justices as dangerous, under stat. 30 & 31 Vic., c. 118, s. 10,	2,383	95.3
Transmitted from prisons by Lord Lieutenant's warrant:—
Certified insane after trial,	64	2.6
Found insane on arraignment,	10	0.4
Became insane after committal and before trial,	6	0.2
Special verdict of guilty, but insane,	4	0.2
Admitted under Army Act, 1881, sec. 91,	32	1.3

It will be seen from the above that 95.3 per cent. of the lunatics were committed direct to asylums by Justices as dangerous with intent to commit crime. Only 2.4 per cent. were transmitted from prisons by Lord Lieutenant's warrant; and 32, or 1.3 per cent., were committed under the Army Act, 1881.

Tables 48, 49, 50 give statistics as to criminal lunatics, while those relating to dangerous lunatics will be found in Tables 51 and 52.

of Police to

Tables 13
and 14.

In table 13 of the Appendix is shown the proportion which the number of effective force of Constabulary bears to the population (according to the Census of 1891) in the various counties, and in provincial towns with a separate Police force, in Ireland. The proportion of Police to population (unrevised numbers) according to the Census of 1901 is the smallest in the following counties :—

Longford,	13 in every 10,000 of the population in 1901.
Down,	13 " "
Antrim,	14 " "
Armagh,	15 " "
Tyrone,	16 " "

The proportion of Police is the largest in the following counties :—

Clare,	38 in every 10,000 of the population in 1901.
Westmeath,	38 " "
Meath,	37 " "
Limerick,	34 " "
King's,	34 " "

In the principal Cities and Towns the proportion of Police is as follows :—

Dublin Metropolitan Police District,	29 in every 10,000 of the population in 1901.
Belfast City Force,	27 " "
Waterford,	27 " "
Longford,	23 " "
Limerick,	23 " "
Cork,	23 " "

Excluding County Inspectors and District Inspectors, but including Depot and Reserve Force, the proportion of Police to the population of Ireland in 1901 was 27 in every 10,000 of the people.

Detectives.

Members of the different branches of the Royal Irish Constabulary Force are selected for special duty when necessary; and in the Dublin Metropolitan Police an entire division, consisting of 39 effective men (10 detective officers, 13 Constables, and 16 Sergeants), 4 Inspectors, and 1 Superintendent, are employed as detectives.

Notes to Tables 1, 3, and 5.

(a.) The titles of offences (Column 1) are much condensed. The fuller titles, and the offences comprised under each head, are given on page 36 of the Criminal Statistics for 1895.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same Assize or Sessions for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation; and the rule to be followed is to select that for which the proceedings were carried to the furthest stage—to trial if there were several indictments, to conviction and sentence if prisoner was tried on several charges. If there are several convictions, the offence selected is that for which the heaviest punishment was awarded. If the final result of proceedings on two or more charges is the same, the more serious offence (as measured by the maximum penalty allowed by the law) appears in the Tables.

(c.) Where, in addition to the offence thus selected for detailed tabulation, the same person is prosecuted for other offences of a distinct character, and charged in separate indictments, the number of these additional charges is given in columns 22 to 24 of the Tables, column 22 giving the total number of such charges, column 23 the number resulting in convictions, and column 24 the number for which separate sentences (not concurrent with those in columns 11 to 17) are passed. Only distinct offences charged in separate indictments are included in these columns; additional indictments merely varying the form of the charge, and additional charges appearing as counts in the same indictment, are excluded.

(d.) Where a person is prosecuted for one offence and convicted for another (e.g. committed for murder and convicted of manslaughter), the case appears only under the offence of which he was convicted.

(e.) Columns 2, 3, and 4 ("Numbers for Trial") include only such cases as actually come before the Assize or Quarter Sessions. Persons who die, escape from prison, abscond while on bail, or are removed to an asylum before trial, are not included.

(f.) Column 15 ("Imprisonment") does not include the sentences of imprisonment which sometimes precede sentences of detention in a Reformatory School, nor does it include sentences of imprisonment in default of payment of fine, or in default of finding sureties.

(g.) Columns 16 and 19 ("Fine") include all cases where payment of a fine is imposed as the sentence or part of the sentence, whether the fine is actually paid or not.

(h.) Columns 17 and 21 ("Recognisance") include cases where recognisances are required, whether with or without sureties, and, if sureties are required, whether they are found or not.

(i.) Columns 18 to 21 are for those cases where more than one punishment is imposed for the same offence. Thus, if a person convicted of larceny is sentenced to be imprisoned and whipped, the imprisonment appears in Column 13 the whipping in column 20.

Notes to Tables 15, 16, 17.

(a.) These Tables include only offences tried summarily. All indictable offences where the Court does not actually assume the power to determine the case summarily are excluded. Further, these Tables include only cases where the proceedings are criminal—that is, lead if successful to a conviction. There are a large number of cases which are quasi-criminal in character, but where the procedure is by complaint, leading, not to a conviction, but to the making of an order. These are provided for in a separate Table—No. 18.

(b.) The Tables show the number of persons prosecuted, not the number of offences. Where, therefore, any person is prosecuted at the same time for several offences, one offence has to be selected for tabulation, and the rules followed are the same as in Table 1 to 5 (see note (3) page 40).

(c.) The offences included under each of the titles of offences in Column 1 are stated on page 46 of the Criminal Statistics for the year 1896.

Notes to Table 15.

(d.) Table 15 corresponds to Tables 1, 3, and 5, and (as regards length of sentences) to Tables 2 and 4.

(e.) Column 5, "Committed to Industrial Schools," includes only those committals to Industrial Schools where an offence is charged—i.e., committals under Section 15 of the Industrial Schools (Ireland) Act, 1868. Other committals to Industrial Schools where the proceedings are not criminal appear in Table 18, and also in Tables 45 to 47.

(f.) Columns 7 to 13, "Imprisonment," do not include the preliminary imprisonment in Reformatory School cases, nor terms of imprisonment in default of paying fine or of finding sureties.

(g.) Column 14, "Reformatory School," contains all cases of persons sentenced to Reformatory School detention, whether they are actually admitted to a reformatory or not. Details as to cases actually received in reformatories are given in Table 41.

(h.) Columns 18 and 19, "Fines," include all cases where a fine is imposed, whether the fine is paid or not. The number of persons committed to prison in default of paying fines is given in Tables 32 and 33.

(i.) Columns 17, 17a, and 20, "Recognisances," include all cases where the defendant is ordered to find sureties, whether the sureties are found or not. It must be remembered, however, that the Table applies only to convictions, and that it does not include cases where a person is required to find sureties upon complaint. These cases are included in Table 18.

Note to Table 16.

(j.) This Table corresponds to Table 6.

POLICE RETURNS.

Notes to Table 20.

(a.) Column 1, "Offences."—The titles of the offences are the same as in Tables 1 to 5.

(b.) Column 2, "Number of Crimes committed."—This column includes all crimes reported to the police within the year whether committed by the same or different persons, and whether any apprehension takes place within the year or not.

(c.) If there is a commitment or conviction within the year, the Table shows the nature of the crime as judicially determined. Failing this, the charge which is named in the summons or warrant on which the prisoner is arrested is taken as determining the crime. If there are no proceedings and no apprehension, the character of the crime is judged by the facts so far as known to the police.

(d.) In columns 3 to 21 the number of persons proceeded against is given, not the number of crimes or charges. A person charged at the same time with several offences appears as one person only. In selecting the offence for tabulation the same principle is followed as in Tables 1 to 5—the charge resulting in conviction or commitment for trial has preference to the others; and subject to this the more serious offence is selected. If there are two or more convictions at the same time, that for which the heavier sentence is inflicted is regarded as the more serious. These columns include only cases disposed of within the year. Cases pending at the end of the year are reserved for inclusion in the following year's tables.

(e.) Columns 7, 8, 15, and 16, "Discharged," contain cases where the Magistrate does not assume power to try the case summarily, but discharges the accused under Section 15 of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, or Section 25 of the Indictable Offences (Ireland) Act, 1849.

(f.) Columns 9 and 17, "Tried Summarily and Discharged," contain cases where, after the Magistrate has decided to deal summarily with the case, the charge is dismissed or withdrawn.

(g.) Columns 10 and 18, "Tried Summarily and Convicted," include cases dealt with under the Probation of First Offenders Act, 1887.

(h.) Columns 11 and 19, "Committed for Trial and sent to Prison," include all persons committed to prison to await trial, whether they are subsequently released on bail or not.

Notes to Table 21.

(i.) The titles of the offences are the same as in Table 15 (b), and, as in that Table, only criminal proceedings are included.

(j.) Notes (g) and (h) above apply to this Table.

(k.) Columns 7 and 11, "Convicted," include cases dealt with under the Probation of First Offenders Act, 1887.

Notes to Table 30.

(a.) This Table gives the numbers of each class of prisoners received in each prison during the year. In the case of prisoners committed for trial, it is necessary to distinguish between those who were and those who were not previously in prison on remand; otherwise in making up the total the same person would, in many cases, count twice—as a remand prisoner and as a prisoner committed for trial. Similarly convicted prisoners have to be divided into those who were and those who were not in detention before trial. The figures of the cases which thus appear a second or a third time are printed in italics, columns 3, 5, and 7. The total of criminal prisoners, column 10, is obtained by adding the figures in the other columns, 2, 4, 5, 6, and 9.

The Table gives only the first reception of prisoners on remand, committal for trial, &c. When prisoners are transferred from one prison to another, they appear only in the return from the prison in which they are first received, not in that from the prison to which they are removed. Since convicts, as a rule, undergo some detention in local prisons before transfer to a convict prison, they appear as receptions only in the local prison returns. The cases returned opposite Mountjoy Convict Prison are those of license forfeited convicts and military convicts received direct after sentence by Court Martial.

(b.) Column 12, "Debtors," comprises all persons who are treated as debtors in prison, including bankrupts imprisoned to prevent absconding, &c.

Notes to Table 31.

RECEIPTS (a).

(a.) This Table gives, in columns 2 to 9, the number of prisoners on remand who are disposed of within the year. It, therefore, includes those in prison on remand on 1st January, but not those on remand and still undispensed of on 31st December. Those who after remand are discharged appear in column 3, those convicted summarily in column 4, those committed for trial in column 5.

(d.) Similar remarks apply to columns 10 to 15. Prisoners waiting trial on 1st January are included; those waiting trial and not disposed of on 31st December are excluded.

RECEIPTS (b).

(a.) This Table shows only the final disposal of each convicted prisoner released or removed during the year. Each case appears only under the prison from which the prisoner is finally discharged or removed. If a prisoner has been removed from one prison to another, his case is included in the figures for the last prison only.

Notes to Table 32.

(c.) This Table includes all cases received under sentence during the year from 1st January to 31st December, whether in prison before conviction or not.

(g.) All prisoners appear in the return from the prison in which they are first received after sentence, and not in the return for any prison to which they may be subsequently removed.

(h.) Column 5 contains only cases where a license is forfeited on conviction by a Court of Summary Jurisdiction for an offence under section 5 of the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1871. Other cases of forfeiture and all cases of revocation of license are included in column 21.

Note to Table 33.

(i.) In this Table two sentences passed at the same time and ordered to run consecutively are treated as one sentence equal in length to the two added together. In the case of concurrent sentences, the longer only is given.

Note to Table 35.

(j.) Where the actual date of birth is known, the age is given for the birthday immediately preceding the date of reception in prison. In other cases the age is given as nearly as possible.

JUDICIAL STATISTICS OF IRELAND

FOR THE

YEAR 1900.

PART II.—CIVIL STATISTICS.

This Volume deals with Statistics relating to the Civil Jurisdiction of all Courts in Ireland.

Those Courts and Offices connected with the Central Administration of Justice, are shown separately from those relating to the Local Administration of Justice, the latter being classified into larger and smaller District Administration of Justice, according to the nature and extent of the Special Jurisdiction.

Arrangement of Tables.

I.—CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE.

The Central Administration of Justice includes the High Court of Justice, consisting, in the year under review, of the Chancery and Queen's Bench Divisions, and the Court of the Land Commission. Under the head of the Queen's Bench Division are comprised the former Queen's Bench, Exchequer, Common Pleas, and Probate and Matrimonial Courts, the High Court of Admiralty, and the Court of Bankruptcy.

Central Administration of Justice.

The Central Appellate Jurisdictions, viz., Her Majesty's Court of Appeal, Ireland; Court for Cases Reserved for Judges of the Queen's Bench Division; the Privy Council in Ireland; Her Majesty in Council; and the House of Lords; have been grouped along with the other Central Jurisdictions, as they are closely connected with them. The proceedings in the Court for Crown Cases Reserved are dealt with in Part I., Criminal Statistics.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE—CHANCERY DIVISION.

The Court business in the Chancery Division during the years 1899 and 1900, with the increase or decrease under each head in the latter year is shown in the following summary:—

In the office of the Registrars of the Chancery Division, the total number of Side Bar Orders was 55, or 7 above the number for 1899.

* There was also one such Appeal in the year 1899, and three in the year 1900, before Judge Ross.

From the County Court equitable jurisdiction, up to £500 property and £30 a year in land, 5 Appeals were argued during the year; in one case the judgment below was affirmed, in two it was reversed, and in one varied, and one appeal was dismissed with costs.

In the Chambers of the Lord Chancellor, the Master of the Rolls, and the Vice-Chancellor there were at the end of the year 786 Wards of Court. The new Minor or Infancy Matters in the year were 16, relating to 30 Wards, as compared with 24 new Matters and 52 new Wards in 1899.

The originating summonses (393) are 53 less than the summonses filed in 1899. In the Notice Department there were 12,357 original documents, being 969 above the number in 1899, but 367 under that for 1898; and 47,531 copies, being 5,014 over the number in 1899. The particulars of the petitions set down for hearing before the Master of the Rolls are shown in the return of the Secretary at the Rolls included in Table 5.

The number of proceedings in the Crown and Hanaper Office was 3,012, being 336 in excess of the number during the year 1899.

LAND JUDGE.

Table 5.

The gross annual value of Estates sold under the Land Judge in the year ended 1st November, 1900, was £32,080, and the amount of purchase-money of such Estates was:—£186,656 Cash, and £316,509 Land Stock. These sums are the proceeds of the sale of Estates of various classes, that is to say:—Estates which the owner in the matter held in fee-simple or in which he had only a life estate, or other terminable interest, the purchase-moneys in such cases only representing the value of the owner's interest. A large proportion of the Estates were, however, sold to the occupying tenants, and in these cases the purchase-moneys include not only the value of the owner's interest in the estate, but the value of the superior interests which, under the Land Purchase Acts, it is necessary to redeem so as to vest the fee-simple in the tenants.

The number of Matters in reference to which proceedings were pending before the Land Judge at the close of the year ended 1st November, 1900, was 2,776, as compared with 2,818 in 1899.

Record and Affidavit

Table 7.

The number of petitions filed in the year ended 31st October, 1900, was 63, being 1 under the number in the preceding year, and 6 under that for 1898, only 8 being by owners. The number of affidavits filed, 2,950, is 157 less than that for 1899, and 322 over the number for 1898.

Keeper of Deeds.
Table 8.

The number of abstracts of title lodged was 94, and the number of deeds and other documents lodged 2,906; in 1899 the respective corresponding numbers were 67 and 3,141.

QUEEN'S BENCH DIVISION.

Business
in Queen's Bench
Division.
Tables 10,
11, 12, and
14.

The proceedings at the Plea side of the Queen's Bench Division are arranged in a single table, although the figures have been supplied by three officers—the Clerk of Writs, the Master, and the Registrar.

Writs of summons, which after having risen from 16,754 in 1896 to 20,166 in 1897, fell to 19,966 in 1898, and to 17,867 in 1899, further declined to 16,970 in 1900. The number of cases which actually came to trial by jury in Dublin in 1900 was 251, being 10 under the number in 1899, and 64 under that for 1898; the amount of money recovered at these trials, which had fallen from £15,089 in 1897 to £14,410 in the following year, rose to £26,481 in 1899, but declined to £25,056 in 1900. In this connection it may be observed that the amount and importance of Judicial business in Ireland, cannot be adequately estimated from the mere amounts either claimed or recovered by suitors.

Of the other business of the Division on the Plea side, there were 14,981 affidavits, a decrease of 2,430, as compared with the number in 1899, which was 1,913 lower than that for 1898.

The return of the business at Chambers and before a single Judge in Court shows that the number of summonses in 1900 was 317, or 94 over the number in 1899; that the number of motions on notice before a single Judge was 471, or 55 under that for the preceding year, and 69 under the number for the year 1898; and that the ex parte motions (including consent orders) granted, were 1,900, or 280 over the number in 1899. }

The following tabular statement shows the particulars of Appeals from the Courts of the Recorder, the County Court Judge for the City and County of Dublin entered for hearing before a Single Judge of the Supreme Court in the years 1899 and 1900 respectively:—

APPEALS (HEARINGS).	Entered.	Admitted.	Reversed.	Settled, Struck out, &c.
From Decree or Dismiss of Recorder of Dublin City and County Courts (including case stated),	1899, 114 1900, 89	64 57	23 17	38 15

The proceedings as to applications to have cases remitted to County Courts are as follows:—

PROCEEDINGS UNDER STAT. 32 & 34 VIC., CAP. 382.	1899.	1900.	Increase, 1899.	Decrease, 1900.
Number of applications to remit to inferior Courts,	407	399	—	8
Number of applications refused,	44	49	5	—
Number of applications granted,	363	350	—	13
In Cases of Contract under 200.
Number of applications granted,	152	146	—	6
In Cases of Tort.
Number of applications granted under sec. 6,	211	204	—	7

From this table it appears that the number of applications to remit cases to the County Courts was 399, showing a decrease of 8 as compared with the year 1899, the number for which year was 11 over that for 1898. Of the 350 applications granted, 146 were in cases of contract and 204 in cases of tort.

The civil business of the Judges of the High Court on Circuit is dealt with at pages 21-23.

The Queen's Coroner, Attorney and Master of the Crown Office has made his usual return of the business at the Crown side of the Queen's Bench. See Table 17.

There were no election petitions in 1900.

There were no acknowledgments by married women filed during 1898, 1899, or 1900. Under the provisions of the Conveyancing Act, 1882 (45 & 46 Vic., cap. 39, sec. 7), no Certificates and Affidavits of Acknowledgment are filed, save such as relate to Deeds executed before the commencement of the Act.

One Perpetual Commissioner was appointed in 1900, no appointments having been made in 1899, 1898, or 1897. The number of Special Commissions granted during 1900 was 6, being 2 more than in 1899.

The figures in the above table show on the whole, a decrease of business in the office in 1900, as compared with 1899, in which year the volume of business was less than in 1898. The number of Judgments of the Irish Superior Courts registered was 2,425, being 365 under the number for the year 1899, and 476 under that for 1898.

Since the latter part of 1898 the compulsory registration of Recognizances, as a charge against Real Estate has been dispensed with, unless specially ordered.

None of the Irish Judgments registered in 1900 were obtained before 15th July, 1890 (which judgments alone affect land without being registered in the Deeds Office as a Judgment Mortgage): of the 203 Judgments re-registered 200 were obtained before that date.

From a comparison of the number of judgments registered with the number of executions issued on judgments in the Queen's Bench Division, it appears that 5,095 judgment executions are returned in the proceedings in Master's Office as entered up, and that 2,425 judgments were registered in the Registry of Judgments Office.

Table 22 contains a return of proceedings in the Local Registration of Title (Ireland) Office, under 54 and 55 Vic., cap. 66, for the year 1900. During the year there were 2364-217 compulsory, and 19 voluntary—applications for first registration and 5,888 cases were lodged by the Irish Land Commission.

Bills of Sale are registered by the Master of the Queen's Bench Division, and included in his return of business at the Plea side. They are grouped here with the business in other offices of registration. The number of bills of sale was 241, as compared with 256 in 1899, 280 in 1898, and 278 in 1897.

Table 19.

The number of deeds registered in the Registry of Deeds Office in the year was 24,900, as compared with 28,290 in 1899, and 27,085 in 1898. Judgment Mortgage Affidavits are included therein: their number in 1900 was 536, as compared with 585 in 1899, and 744 in 1898. The searches made by the public were 5,496; those lodged for official search were 3,511, of which 1,809 were negative searches, and 1,702 common searches. The abstract book, entered up to 15th December in 1898, was, on the 31st of December, 1899, entered up to 1st December, and on 31st December, 1900, entered up to 3rd December, 1900. The Transcription of Memorials was completed to 18th August in 1898, to 8th September in 1899, and to 13th December, in 1900. The negative searches lodged but not made were 15 in 1898, 18 in 1899, and 106 in 1900, and the common searches lodged but not made numbered 15 in 1898, and 28 in 1899, and 70 in 1900.

A comparison with the number in the year 1899, shows that there was an increase of 889 in the wills proved and letters of administration granted in 1900, at the District Registries, of which there are eleven. The aggregate number at both Central and District Registries (10,111) is 1,173 over the number in 1899.

The causes entered for trial on circuit in 1900 numbered 152, being 26 less than the number for the preceding year. The amount recovered was £4,542 as against £5,762 in 1899, £3,952 in 1898, and £5,247 in 1897.

The number of Appeals from County Court Judges and Recorders entered in the year 1900 was 2,957, being 113 under the number in the preceding year, and 308 under that for 1898.

A new Table, No. 50 (pages 70-73), is appended to this Report showing the Appeals from County Court Judges and Recorders in respect of Claims for Malicious Injuries under Section 5 of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898, in the year 1900.

The total number of such appeals heard during the year was 123, viz., 8 in cases of Malicious Injury to the Person and 114 of Malicious Injury to Property. In 50 cases the decrees below were confirmed, 5 being cases of Injury to the Person, and 45 of Injury to Property; in 18 cases the decrees below were varied and in 9 reversed. In 28 cases dismissals below were confirmed and in 23 reversed.

There were, in 1900, no objections to Fiscal Presentments heard by Judges, and no special directions given.

The number of railway traversees under the Railway Acts is 8, being 5 under the number for the preceding year, and 21 under that for 1898. There were no tramway traversees under Tramway Acts in any of the seven years, 1894-1900.

The number of memorials from persons fined for non-attendance as Jurors was 89, or 69 more than in the preceding year. The fines appealed from in cases heard were £38 in 1899 and £252 in 1900. The fines in cases heard were altogether remitted both in 1899 and 1900.

The number of Civil Bill ejectments served by these officers is 10,354 as compared with 12,501 in 1899, 13,357 in 1898, 13,551 in 1897, 14,823 in 1896, 15,165 in 1895, 15,744 in 1894, 18,048 in 1893, 17,946 in 1892, 18,007 in 1891, and 17,090 in 1890. These figures show that there has been a gradual decline in the number of these ejectments in each year since 1893, and that the number for 1900 is very much below the average annual number for the ten years 1890-99. The number of replevins in 1900 was 594 as compared with 635 in 1899, 603 in 1898, 607 in 1897, 609 in 1896, 459 in 1895, 464 in 1894, 459 in 1893, 516 in 1892, 286 in 1891, and 280 in 1890; and the number of other civil bills, 145,764, as compared with 163,242 in 1899, 184,134 in 1898, 183,189 in 1897, 180,502 in 1896, 179,154 in 1895, 184,015 in 1894, 192,427 in 1893, 188,072 in 1892, 172,290 in 1891, and 156,794 in 1890.

From the above it appears that of the total number of cases in which claims were heard (979), Decrees were obtained in 744, and 235 were dismissed.

Of the 130 claims made but not heard, 94 were disposed of otherwise than by Decree or Dismissal, and 36 were pending at the close of the year.

The following statement shows in round numbers the total amount claimed in cases in which Decrees were made and the amount of compensation granted by the County Court:—

	Injuries to Person.		Injuries to Property.
	Claimed.	Granted.	Claimed.	Granted.
	£	£	£	£
Leinster, . . .	3,000	550	4,562	2,366

Ulster, . . .	2,750	500	7,747	3,806
Connaught, . . .	1,250	650	1,315	785
Total, . . .	9,000	2,953	28,716	14,868

From the foregoing it appears that in cases of Malicious Injury to the Person in which Decrees were made, out of a total of £9,920 claimed, the grants of compensation amounted to £2,953, and in cases of Malicious Injury to Property in which Decrees were made, out of a total of £28,716, the grants amounted to £14,868.

The amount claimed in cases dismissed of Injury to the Person was £2,700, viz., £1,700 in Ulster and £1,000 in Connaught; and in cases dismissed of Injury to Property it was £10,827, viz., Leinster, £2,006; Munster, £4,935; Ulster, £2,284; and Connaught, £1,652.

The Appeals from County Court Judges and Recorders in respect of claims for Malicious Injury under Section 5 of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898, in the year 1900 are given in Table 50 (pages 70-73). See remarks on page 22.

The total number of Eviction Notices filed during the year 1900, under Section 7 of the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1887, was 3,053 being 1,418 less than the number (4,481) in the preceding year. The corresponding figures for the years 1893-1898 are as follows:—

1893, . . .	6,556	1895, . . .	4,923	1897, . . .	3,945
1894, . . .	5,473	1896, . . .	4,773	1898, . . .	4,391

Of the 3,053 notices in 1900, 75 were filed in the High Court of Justice, and 2,978 in County Courts.

The number of Civil Bill decrees and dismisses returned as executed during the year 1900 is 21,174, of which 15,314 were executed by Sheriffs, and 5,860 by Special Bailiffs. In 1899 the number was 22,742; in 1898 it was 26,619; in 1897 it was 21,967; in 1896 it was 20,976; in 1895 it was 19,522; in 1894, 20,998; and in 1893, 24,368.

The warrants to Special Bailiffs under Act 23 & 24 Vic., c. 154 (summary recovery of possession of tenements), were 798 in 1899, and 762 in 1900. The warrants to Special Bailiffs under 14 & 15 Vic., cap. 92, s. 15 (summary recovery of possession of tenements overheld in towns), 15,328, show a decrease of 559 as compared with the number in 1899, which was 1,963 under that for the year 1898.

The Returns of Sheriffs as to execution of ejectments classified so as to distinguish the ejectments for non-payment of rent from other ejectments are shown in the following Summary:—

	EJECTMENTS FOR NON-PAYMENT OF RENT.				EJECTMENTS FOR OTHER CAUSES.

Connaught, . .	230	239	9	—	110	67	—	43

From this Table it appears that there was a increase of 27 in ejectments for non-payment of rent (following a decrease of 187 in 1899, and an increase of 17 in 1898), and a decrease of 43 in other ejectments, of which class of ejectments there were 265 less in 1899 than in 1898.

Particulars of the number of proceedings under the Landlord and Tenant Act of 1870, are shown in the following table:—

From this table it appears that there were only 8 cases for disposal in the year 1900, being a decrease of 3 as compared with the preceding year.

There have been no applications for confirmation of leases since the year 1882.

The decrees in 1900 were 3, and the dismissals 2; in 1899 there were 4 decrees and 5 dismissals.

Decrees.

In the three land claim cases in which there were decrees in 1900, the total amount claimed was £168, and the total amount decreed without deducting allowance for set-off to Landlords for dilapidation, rent, &c., was £56. In 1899 the amount claimed in cases where decrees were made was £1,983, and the sum decreed was £939. Of the cases in which decrees were obtained in the year 1900, one was in the province of Leinster and two in Ulster. In 1899 the decrees consisted of 3 in the province of Leinster and one in Ulster.

*Local

Table 57.*

The Commissioners appointed under the Land Law (Ireland) Acts have many functions of a judicial character, therefore it is necessary in this Report to refer to the judicial portion of their proceedings, and it is convenient to do so here, as the questions dealt with are somewhat allied to those under the Act of 1870—dealt with above—and are mainly determined in the Courts of the Sub-Commissioners which are most properly dealt with as part of the local administration of justice.

A detailed account of the business of the Court of the Land Commission is unnecessary, as the Reports of the Commissioners contain full information on the subject.

The following statement shows generally the extent and nature of the proceedings under the Land Law Act, during the year 1900:—

It appears from the foregoing statements that during the year 1900 "fair rents" were fixed in 5,160 first statutory term cases (2,180 in court and 2,980 out of court), and 15,701 second statutory term cases (9,400 in court and 6,301 out of court), the "former rent" of the holdings dealt with in the first statutory term cases being £75,518, and the judicial rents registered by the Court £60,608, showing a reduction of £14,905, or 19·7 per cent. of the "former rent"; and the amount of the first statutory term judicial rents in the cases in which second term rents were fixed being £241,120, which was reduced to a judicial rent of £191,159 for the second statutory term, showing a reduction of £49,961, or 20·7 per cent. of the judicial rent for the

In Table 39 of Appendix will be found the number of cases of appeal from the Land Commission to the Court of Appeal, and how these were disposed of. They are referred to at page 20 under the head of Appellate Jurisdiction.

The Sales to Tenants under the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Act, 1885, in which the Loans were issued during the years ending 31st December, 1899, and 31st December, 1900, is shown in a Return furnished by the Commissioners, which is given in Table 64, page 101.

From this Return and those published in the Reports on Judicial Statistics for the thirteen years 1887-99, we learn that the number of Tenant Purchasers in the first year (August, 1885—August, 1886), in which the Act was in operation, was 1,204, in the second 2,518, in the third 4,470, in the fourth 2,819, in the fifth 2,708, in the sixth 3,067, in the seventh 3,178, in the eighth 3,367, in the period from 22nd August, 1893, to the 31st December, 1893, 300, in the (calendar) year ended 31st December, 1894, 1,347; in the following year 202; in the year ended 31st December, 1895, 249; in the year ended 31st December, 1897, 34; in the year 1898, 5; in 1899, 1; and in the year ended 31st December last, one; the total number up to the last mentioned date being 25,371, of whom 12,957, or 51·1 per cent., were in Ulster; 5,068, or 20·0 per cent., in Munster; 4,106, or 16·2 per cent., in Leinster; and 3,240, or 12·7 per cent., in Connaught. The total Purchase money for the whole period, from the 22nd August, 1885, to the 31st December, 1900, was £10,155,518, and the total amount of Loans £9,989,836. There was but one sale during the year 1900, and that a case in which the Purchase money was £125 only. In the first year the average number of years' Purchase on Net Rental was 18·3, in the second 17·5, in the third 17·4, in the fourth 17·2, in the fifth 16·2, in the sixth 16·6, in the seventh 16·9, in the eighth 17·1; in the period from 22nd August, 1893, to 31st December of that year, 16·6; in the year ended 31st December, 1894, 16·9; in the year ended 31st December, 1895, 15·3; in the following year 15·7; in the year ended 31st December, 1897, 14·2; in the year ended 31st December, 1898, 17; in the year ended 31st December, 1899 (one case), 16·8; and in the year ended 31st December last (one case), 9·1.

Table 65, on page 101, contains a Return of Sales to Tenants under the Purchase of Land (Ireland) Acts, 1891 and 1896, in which Loans were issued during the years ending the 31st December, 1899, and 31st December, 1900. The Loans issued during the year 1900 amounted to £1,655,572,* the Purchase money agreed upon being £1,674,562, and the number of Tenant Purchasers 6,389. In the year 1892 (the first in which Loans were issued under the Act of 1891), the amount lent was £90,448, and the Purchase money agreed upon £95,149; in the year 1893 the Loans were £646,546, and the Purchase money £664,873; in the year 1894 the Loans were £787,597, and the Purchase money £809,150; in the year 1895 the Loans were £575,541, and the Purchase money, £595,041; in the year 1896 the Loans were £437,264, and the Purchase money £454,952; in the year 1897 the Loans were £702,007, and the Purchase money £717,108; in the year 1898 the Loans were £1,484,686, and the Purchase money £1,512,482; in the year 1899 the Loans were £1,771,966,* and the Purchase money £1,793,162. In the nine years combined the Loans amounted to £8,151,627, and the Purchase money to £8,316,479. The Loans for the nine years were made to 27,250 Tenant purchasers, of whom 11,094, or 40·7 per cent., were in Ulster; 5,638, or 20·7 per cent., in Munster; 5,855, or 21·5 per cent., in Leinster; and 4,663, or 17·1 per cent., in Connaught. The average number of years' Purchase on the Net Rental was 17·0 in each of the two years 1892-3; 16·9 in 1894; 17·0 in 1895; 16·5 in 1896; 17·1 in 1897; 17·4 in 1898; 17·9 in 1899; and 18·1 in 1900.

From the above summaries it will be seen that the total amount of Loans issued under the three Acts (1885, 1891, and 1896), from August, 1885, to the close of the year 1900, was £18,141,463, and the gross amount of Purchase money agreed upon was £18,471,997. The Loans were made to 52,621 Tenant purchasers, of whom 24,051, or 45·7 per cent., were in Ulster; 10,706, or 20·4 per cent., in Munster; 9,961, or 18·9 per cent., in Leinster; and 7,903, or 15·0 per cent., in Connaught.

* See note to Table 65, page 101.

JURORS.

As the result of the revision of the General Jurors' Lists, 51,149 out of 122,539 persons, or 41·7 per cent., were struck off; there were only 43 persons added by Revision Court, all being in the City of Dublin.

Table 59.*

In addition to those struck off on revision there were 364 exempted by Clerks of the Peace. This gives the total number of Jurors on the corrected General Jurors' Books for 1901 (when handed to the Sheriffs) in all Ireland as 71,069, of whom 57,934 were on rated qualification, 9,752 were £10 freeholders, 2,824 were £20 leaseholders, 532 Directors or Managers of Public Companies, and 27 Harbour Commissioners.

Out of 17,455 persons on the Special Jurors' Lists, 6,169 persons were struck off by Revision Court, 192 were exempted by the Clerks of the Peace, and 11 were struck off books by Judges, 78 were added by Revision Court, so that there was a net reduction of 6,294, or 36 per cent. When handed to the Sheriffs the books showed 11,161 Special Jurors.

The total number of jurors returned as summoned in the year is 42,808, as compared with 43,559 in 1899. Of the number for 1900, 4,727 were Grand Jurors* for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 8,664 were Grand Jurors for Quarter Sessions; 1,224* were Special Jurors for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 12,689 were Petit and Common Jurors for Assizes, Commissions, and Superior Courts; 14,482 were Petit Jurors for Quarter Sessions; 850 were Jurors in Civil Bill cases before County Court Judges or Recorders; and 170 were Jurors for other purposes.

The number of appeals from Magistrates heard at Quarter Sessions, as appears from the above figures, was 20 higher in 1900 than in 1899, the number for which year was 30 less than that for 1898. Of the appeals heard and decided in Court during 1900, in 260 cases the previous decisions were affirmed, in 147 reversed, and in 81 varied.

SPIRIT LICENCES.

The number of licences granted at Quarter Sessions other than the annual licensing Sessions was 974, which, with the number granted or confirmed at the Annual Sessions (1,816), makes 2,790 in all, and of these 605 were on original application, being 69 in excess of the number of licences granted on original application in 1899, and 77 over the corresponding number for 1898.

The Civil cases at Petty Sessions other than proceedings against cottier and weekly tenants were disposed of as follows:—

The number of occasions on which, in consequence of the non-attendance of Magistrates, Petty Sessions were not held is also indicated in the Returns. This number (357), as compared with 12,639 sittings of Petty Sessions Courts other than Dublin Police Courts, gives a proportion of 2·8 per cent.; but this proportion is differently distributed, and reaches 6·7 per cent. in the province of Connaught, as appears from the following table:—

*This deficiency consisted of various appropriations out of the Publics in Great, under the authority of various Acts of Parliament, towards the cost of the buildings of the Courts of Law, and Law Library in Dublin, and of a loan of £7,000 for the said building, in a deficiency in the accounts of a former Member of the House of Commons; and in consequence of the same, the said deficiency was paid by the Act 25 and 26 Geo. III. c. 37 (1780), and 30 Geo. III. c. 41, (1785). The Government had authority for the making of the deficiency, in the event of the Publics in Great being at any time insufficient to meet payments to persons. The Inquiry may however be said to be complete.
